

KZN Coastal Branch presents

Amazing China Amazing China

Is China just about people and pollution, or are they environmentally conscious? During a four week tour of mainland China, some of it off the beaten track, Charles and Julia Botha took over 2500 photos. This is your opportunity to see a selection of the most astonishing ones - some that may shock and others that will make you laugh.

Besides environmental issues such as plants, birds and conservation, the talk will include many other fascinating aspects ranging from food to religion and politics, and so will also be of interest to those who are not BotSoc members. Don't miss this presentation, which is sure to hold many surprises and to dispel some popular myths and misconceptions about China and its people.
